

Sergeant Alfred WILSON
1st October 1915.

Sergeant Wilson (13435) serving with the 6th Battalion Lincolnshire Regiment was killed in action in the Gallipoli Campaign on 1st October 1915.

Alfred was born in Market Rasen in 1883 the son of John and Naomi Wilson. By 1911 Alfred is married to Mabel, they have two children and he is an officer in the Metropolitan Police. They were living in Acton Green. He enlisted at Hounslow in November 1914 but presumably chose to join the Lincolnshire Regiment. He went with the Regiment to Gallipoli in July 1915 and then to Suvla Bay in August. Alfred was killed in action on 1st October 1915.